Making Good.

There is no way of making lasting friends like "Making Good;" and Doctor Pierce's medicines well exemplify this, and their friends, after more than two decades of popularity, are numbered by the hundreds of thousands. They have "made good" and they have not made drunkards.

A good, honest, square-deal medicine of known composition is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It still enjoys an immense sale, while most of the preparations that have come into prominence in the earlier period of its popularity have "gone by the board" and are never more heard of. There must be some reason for this long-time popularity and that is to be found in its superior merits. When once given a fair trial for weak stomach, or for liver and blood affections, its superior curative qualities are soon manifest; hence it has survived and grown in popular favor, while scores of less meritorious articles have suddenly flashed into favor for a brief period and then been as soon forgotten.

For a torpid liver with its attendant indigestion, dyspepsia, headache, perhaps dizziness, foul breath, nasty coated tongue, with bitter taste, loss of appetite, with distress after eating, nervousness and debility, nothing is so good as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It's an honest, square-deal medicine with all its ingredients printed on bottle-wrapper—no secret, no hocus-pocus humbug, therefore don't accept a substitute that the dealer may possibly make a little bigger profit. Insist on your right to have what you call for.

Don't buy Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription expecting it to prove a "cure-all." It is only advised for woman's special ailments. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. Less advertised than some preparations sold for like purposes, its sterling curative virtues still maintain its position in the front ranks, where it stood over two decades ago. As an invigorating tonic and strengthening nervine it is unequaled. It won't satisfy those who want "booze," for there is not a drop of alcohol in it.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, the original Little Liver Pills, although the first pill of their kind in the market, still lead, and when once tried are ever afterwards in favor. Easy to take as candy—one to three a dose. Much imitated but never equaled.

AUTOMOBILIST KILLED.

Emanuel Cedrino, one of the world's most famous drivers of racing automobiles, was killed instantly on the Pimlico racetrack near Baltimore about 5:30 yesterday afternoon, while tuning up his Fiat-Cyclone car for the races that are to take place at the track this afternoon. While turning into the back stretch of the track at a speed much greater than a mile a minute the right front wheel of the car is believed to have collapsed, and the big car, weighing probably nearly three tons, swirled half around, left the ground, turned a complete somersault and killed Cedrino instantly. The occipital bone was mashed, and Dr. Herbert Schoenick, who witnessed the accident and rushed to his aid, said that Cedrino had died before his body and the car hit the ground after the aerial flight. The body was found near one of the posts supporting the fence around the outside of the track, and the jumpled mass of steel and wood that had been the car was 20 feet farther along the track. Many of Cedrino's bones were broken.

For several feet along the track coins from the pockets of Cedrino were strewn which the witnesses take as a substantiation of their belief that the car revolved in the air, tearing away Cedrino's life before it hit the ground. When found the powerful machine was pointed in the opposite direction to that in which it had been going when the accident occurred. Cedrino's marvelous presence of mind in the face of instant death was mutely but eloquently shown by the fact that, in the very act of dying, he had turned off the gasoline, thus stopping the motor.

When the wheel collapsed the hub dug into the track for a distance of 100 feet before the conflict of forces sent the car spinning into space. The rim and huge pneumatic tire, torn loose from the machine vaulted the hedge and went with terrific force a distance of 300 yards to the high board fence surrounding the grounds. The rim and tire hit this fence so hard that it returned on the rebound about 100 yards. The spokes of the wheel were splintered into nothingness, and all the inanimate surroundings testified to the appalling force of the three-ton racing car going at a record speed.

CORNER IN MAY CORN.

The "corner" in May corn, which has been run by James A. Patten, of Chicago, and his associates, came to an end yesterday, and the "Patten crowd" is generally credited with having made about $2,000,000 on the deal, although it is admitted that all estimates are largely guesswork. Mr. Patten personally declared yesterday that he did not know how much had been made.

The market yesterday was highly irregular and nervous in wheat, corn and oats. May wheat ranged between 106 and 111 and closed at 110½. Corn sold anywhere between 77½ and 82⅝ and closed at 80 to 80½. Oats ranged between 51½ and 56¼ and closed at 52¾.

Excitement ran high in all of the grain pits when the weakness was greatest. Values changed with such bewildering rapidity that traders were puzzled. Shorts were anxious to cover, and brokers for the bull leaders had, at times, plenty of grain to sell. It is said that the shorts have delivered to Mr. Patten and his friends not far from 5,000,000 bushels of corn and close to 8,800,000 bushels of oats.

The "corner" has been largely in May corn and Patten's holdings of his option were accumulated between 55 and 60 cents. Subsequent buying, necessary to support the market at critical periods, raised the average purchase price by about five cents a bushel.

The deal began early in October, 1907. In that month May corn sold to 65½ cents. The financial troubles which set in about that time tumbled the price to 53½ cents. After the financial flurry had abated the price of May corn advanced slowly. During February it sold up to 62½ cents and in March at 68½ cents. Since then it has continued to climb and shorts have scoured the country for corn to deliver on their May contracts. Immense quantities of the grain have been delivered to Patten, but he has paid for it all and apparently stood ready at all times to take more.

Early in May the shorts began desperate efforts to fill the Chicago elevators with corn and many of the western railroads issued "rush" orders to apply on all corn shipments. Despite this, however, Patten and his associates were not compelled to let go, nor was their hold on the market weakened to any apparent extent.

REFUSED TO SING ANTHEM.

The inquest into the murder of Mrs. James Creighton and her two daughters, native born Americans, and until a year ago residents of Port Huron, Mich., at Owen Sound, was held there yesterday. The husband and father, James Creighton, is held. It was brought out that on Victoria Day, May 24, the family went to church as usual, but the woman refused to join in singing "God Save the Queen." On the way home Creighton asked the women why they had refused to sing, and they replied they were citizens of the United States and would not sing the British national anthem. Creighton replied with an oath that he would have no one in his house who was not loyal to the British flag. It is thought this may have had some bearing on the tragedy that followed. Creighton says he kissed his wife goodby, intending to end his own life only and what followed after that is a blank to him.

SATURDAY EVENING, MAY 30, 1908

THERE will be no need of republican platform declarations that the tariff should be revised only by its "friends." What better evidence of this is needed than the fact that those two eminent "friends" of the tariff, Senator Aldrich and Representative Payne, and the respective committees on finance and ways and means, of which they are chairmen, are to meet during the summer and autumn months to prepare the way for tariff revision? When these two "friendly movers" put their heads together, says the Philadelphia Record, there will be little cause for doubt as to the artistic character of their work of tariff reform. What this brace of artists do not know about revising the tariff on "protectionist lines" no bungler in the army of stand-patters need try to learn.

SINCE the republicans in Congress, with their menace of the Crumpacker force bill, have once more gratuitously made a "solid South," the democrats have only to secure New York and one or two other doubtful states of the north to elect their candidate for president. The shameless political immorality in using the Crumpacker menace to defeat the publicity bill for checking the use of trust money in the elections, says the Philadelphia Record, ought to make it no difficult matter to accomplish this result by appeals to the sober judgment of the people of these States against the party of electoral corruption and sectionalism.

THE annual appropriations of Congress amount to $1,008,804,894, an increase over last year of $156,000,000 in spite of reductions in estimates of $124,347,172. It was something of a task to get away with the enormous surplus accumulated in the federal treasury by persistent overtaxation. But the Roosevelt administration has been equal to the opportunity. It has not only dissipated the surplus, but it has demanded a greater liberty of dissipation.

WITH the promise of assistance from two men only, Senators Oore and Stone, Senator La Follette has started in to prevent the passage of the Aldrich-Cannon-Wall street currency bill on a continuous struggle that must terminate either in his complete exhaustion or in his success. The fight promises to be the most remarkable ever started by one man in a legislative body. But thrice armed is he who has his quarrel just.

THE mails are choked and the waste baskets groan these last-of-the-session days with many-paged Congressional Records, filled with undelivered speeches, thrust into the hands of sickened and disgusted constituencies. Nobody reads the speeches that nobody hears. The publication is a shameless and costly scandal which the reputable members of Congress should make haste to end.

THE CHARGE that the New York Stock Exchange is a gambling institution and not a mercantile exchange is practically sustained in the report submitted to President Roosevelt by Commissioner of Corporations Herbert Knox Smith, made public yesterday. Most people were aware of this before Mr. Smith made his report.

FRANCE has imposed an income tax on government securities, and as more taxation will be necessary here to meet republican extravagance and loss of revenue by reason of vicious policies, we may have to eventually, like France, tax incomes on government bonds.

A REPUBLICAN congressman wants the Washington laundries regulated by law and fined for tearing his shirts. This shows how Roosevelt policies of centralization are spreading disaster.

ACCORDING to Mr. Taft, the advisability of revising the tariff should be thoroughly considered. Evidently, he has not yet considered it at all.

THE PRESBYTERIANS.

Consideration of the report on schools and colleges was resumed at yesterday's session of the Southern Presbyterian general assembly at Greensboro, N. C. An amendment was adopted looking to safeguarding donations so as to keep them under the control of the church. Dr. R. E. Vincent, of Texas, was elected secretary of the committee on schools and colleges. The following delegates were chosen for the Council of the Aliance at New York in 1909: A. B. Curry, J. E. Jones, A. A. McGeachy, W. P. Henderson, D. M. Sweets, W. L. Lingle, Charles P. Hyde, A. M. Fraser, S. M. Smith, W. B. Y. Wilkie, R. E. Vinson, T. S. Wilson, P. R. Law.

Elders—Thomas W. Butlitt, C. W. Dorsey, Gov. Hoke Smith, Geo. W. Watts (Durham, N. C.), W. C. Clark, Rhodes S. Baker.

The committee appointed to formulate the judgment of the assembly in the case of Bennet W. Young and others against the Synod of Kentucky recommended that the complaint be sustained and that the whole matter be referred back to the Synod of Kentucky for a new hearing. The report was accepted.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, D. C., May 30.

This being a legal holiday, Decoration Day, all the departments were closed and many people left the city. The various cemeteries were visited by delegations of the G. A. R., and at Arlington quite elaborate exercises were held. The excursion boats and railroads did a good business. A large number of people were at the Capitol to witness the closing sessions of Congress.

Discouraged because life was not as smooth as she had pictured it, Mrs. Minnie Barrett, of 2149 K street, northwest, a bride of only five months, this morning attempted to end it all by inhaling gas, and when discovered was just lapsing into unconsciousness, clasping her husband's photograph against her breast. Beneath the photograph she had written him her parting message: "I love you, good-by." She was hurried to a hospital where she recovered.

Maj. Gen. F. D. Grant commanding the department of the East, has issued orders designating the troops from Washington Barracks, and Fort Myer, Va., which will participate in the big mobile maneuver camp at Pine Plains, N. Y. This camp will be one of the biggest ever held.

"COTTON LEAK."

The aftermath of the "cotton-leak" scandal of 1905 was reached yesterday by the return in Washington of indictments charging conspiracy against Theodore H. Price, of New York; Moses Haas, of New York; Frederick Peckham and Edwin S. Holmes, jr., of Washington.

Holmes was formerly statistician of the Department of Agriculture, his duty being the preparation of the cotton reports in the months of June, July, August and September, and it is alleged that the three New York men conspired with Holmes to obtain advance information concerning the contents of the government reports, which invariably affected the cotton market.

In one of the indictments it is alleged that Price made $750,000 out of this advance information obtained from the report of December, 1904, and that of this sum, it is further declared, he paid Haas $125,000. Although the indictment does not charge the amount Holmes is supposed to have received for allowing this information to leak, the sum of $1,000 is named as the amount of his share for information obtained before the report of June, 1905, was issued.

THE EAGLES.

State worthy president, Carter Braxton, Staunton.

State worthy vice-president, I. r. Louis Loeb, Newport News.

State worthy chaplain, M. J. Lyons.

State worthy conductor, J. B. Graves, Clifton Forge.

Worthy inside guard, Thomas Smith, Manchester.

Trustees—Mercer Hartman (three years), Roanoke; Gus Bernier (two years), Richmond; Frank Moore (one year), Hampton.

Next State convention to be held in Roanoke, second Wednesday in May, 1909.

THE NORFOLK POLL-TAX CASE

Attorney General Anderson has filed his formal petition with the Supreme Court of Appeals for a rehearing of the Norfolk poll-tax case. Major Anderson takes the ground that if the interpretation placed on the opinion handed down some days ago is allowed to go unaltered it will result in depriving something like nine-tenths of the voters of the right of franchise. He also points out that in certain cases, when a treasurer dies or resigns, there would be no list of voters who could personally pay the appointee, and according to that construction of the law there would be no voters in such city or county except the old soldiers. Attorney General Anderson pointed out these faults with the opinion of the court in a most respectful and emphatic way, saying that because of the importance of the matter he requests that the court shall agree to rehear the case. The full opinion in this case has never been given to the public, the court having withdrawn it for the purpose of elaborating some of the points which were held to be difficult of understanding.

KILLED AND BURIED CHILDREN

The bodies of the two Ball children, who disappeared mysteriously early last December, after their demented mother, Mrs. Mary Ball, had taken them from home, were found buried in a field at Brockton, Mass., yesterday. The body of Thomas, the seven-year-old son, was found first, and that of his sister, Mary Grace Ball, eight years old, a short distance away. At the time of the disappearance of the children the mother was lost to her relatives and friends for several days. When she was finally discovered wandering about she was in a deplorable physical and mental condition. It is believed now that the little ones were killed by their mother, who afterward buried them.

Fogbound Steamers.

New York, May 30.—Five large steamships and a fleet of coastwise vessels are fogbound outside Sandy Hook. The fog banks are so heavy that the lookouts cannot see for more than fifty feet. Harbor and river traffic is practically at a standstill. There was an immense amount of passenger traffic planned for the day by the reason it being a holiday, but it has been necessary to abandon most of it. At many places scores of tugboats are tied up, their captains fearing to venture into the murky banks.

News of the Day.

Mrs. Grover Cleveland, her children and her mother, Mrs. Perrine, left Princeton, N. J., yesterday for West Ossipee, N. H. It is said that Mr. Cleveland will join his family there shortly.

By a vote of 9 to 8 last night the Charlotte, N. C., City Council passed an ordinance taking away from drug stores the right to sell intoxicating liquor on physicians' prescriptions. The drug stores are given until July 1st to dispose of the stock of liquors they have on hand.

James A. Baker was found guilty in the Phillipi, W. Va., federal court today of tampering with the mail, burning the station and murdering Edward Y. Hutchinson, telegraph operator and station agent at Welcome, W. Va., on the night of Dec. 20 last. He was sentenced to the penitentiary for life.

Colin, the greatest race horse ever foaled in America, and victor of thirteen consecutive races, will never face the starter again. After a trial at the Sheepshead Bay track Tuesday, in which he showed sensational speed, he ruptured the tendons in his forelegs so badly that he is now a hopeless cripple.

Three thousand relic hunters and buyers tramped over the Gunness farm near Laporte, Ind., yesterday, where Administrator Fogle began the sale of Mrs. Gunness's personal property. Pitchforks brought $5 each, while other insignificant articles brought many times their actual value. It was a veritable picnic day on Murder Hill.

The work of sailors of the yacht Mayflower about 7.15 o'clock yesterday evening averted a disaster, when fire was discovered in a powder magazine on the water front at the navy yard at Washington. A party of sailors, under the command of Lieut. Reed, rushed into the burning building and carried to places of safety about two tons of black powder, used for saluting purposes, a quantity of signal rockets, and some highly explosive chemicals used in priming the big guns. The Mayflower was tied at the wharf a short distance from the magazine. The flames were soon extinguished and the damage to the building was slight.

Virginia News.

Statistics in possession of the Virginia Corporations Commission show that the 2-cent rate on railroads has paid.

At Bristol yesterday evening the jury in the case of Ack Hale, charged with the murder of his sweetheart, Lillie Davis, in that city, more than a year ago, returned a verdict of murder in the first degree, after deliberating eighteen hours, but recommending mercy. Judge Tyler overruled a motion for a new trial and sentenced the prisoner to life imprisonment.

The police of Manassas Thursday arrested as a suspicious character a boy who gives his name as Robert Simmons. He is 17 years old, and says that he ran away from his home in Baltimore, because he feared corporal punishment at the hands of his father. Harry Richmond, who also has been with him escaped from the officers. Since leaving Baltimore Simmons has divided his time between Washington, Alexandria and Clifton Forge.

THE METHODISTS.

Yesterday a special committee of the Methodist Episcopal General Conference, now in session in Baltimore, was named to sift the important measures out of the mass of work before the general body.

Editors of church papers and leading secretaries of the general conference board were voted for.

Rev. Dr. Edwin M. Randall was re-elected secretary of the Epworth League.

Rev. Dr. Thomas Nicholson, of Dakota, was elected secretary of education.

For secretary of the Freedman's Aid Society one ineffectual ballot was taken, and another, which was counted this morning.

Rev. Dr. M. C. B. Mason, colored, and Rev. Dr. B. J. Maveety were elected secretaries of the organization to raise money for colored education.

Rev. Robert Forbes, secretary of Home Missions and Church Extension Society, was re-elected.

Rev. Dr. Joseph B. Hingeley was elected secretary of the board of conference claimants.

Rev. Dr. J. J. Wallace succeeded Bishop-elect Smith as editor of the Pittsburg Christian Advocate.

Conference, which will adjourn on Monday, turned the mass of reports before it over to a special committee that will weed out the important measures for action and let the remainder go by default.

CONGRESSIONAL.

The Senate, on motion of Senator Gallinger yesterday agreed to the House amendments to the bill amending the act allowing the Baltimore and Washington Transit Company to enter the District, and the bill is now up to the president.

The Senate passed the House bill incorporating the Congressional Club, a social organization of the wives of congressmen and senators. The name of Mrs. Frank Vrooman was added to the bill in the Senate, and the House agreed to the amendment.

Senator Hale secured the passage by the Senate of a bill incorporating the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, an organization of men and boys in the Episcopal Church, within the District. Senator Culberson yielded the floor to enable the Senate to act on the bill.

The Senate held an all night session on a filibuster lead by Mr. LaFollette to prevent the passage of the Aldrich-Vreeland currency bill.

The House considered several minor bills, and at 3:40 took a recess until 7 o'clock, when a recess until 11 o'clock today was ordered as a quorum, could not be held.

Today's Telegraphic News.

The Senate Filibuster.

Washington, D. C., May 30.—At 7:03 o'clock this morning, Senator La Follette, of Wisconsin, concluded the longest continuous speech ever delivered in the Congress of the United States, having occupied the floor of the Senate for 18 hours and 23 minutes. He was followed by Senator Stone, of Missouri, who expected to speak for several hours, in continuation of the spectacular filibuster against the Aldrich-Vreeland currency bill inaugurated by the Wisconsin senator shortly after noon yesterday.

At the conclusion of Mr. Stone's speech, Mr. Gore, the blind senator from Oklahoma, who was at his desk when Mr. LaFollette finished, will take up the debate. It was reported also that Senator Jeff Davis, of Arkansas, was on his way from the west to arrive today, and that he would join in the filibuster.

When Mr. LaFollette left the Senate floor this morning he appeared perfectly composed, and in as good physical condition as when he began his record-breaking speech. He went immediately to the barber shop, where he was shaved, then refusing offers of a carriage, he took a street car for his home.

"I am going home to get a bath and get three hours sleep, then I shall return to succeed Senator Gore," he said.

The longest previous one man filibuster in the Senate was that conducted by Senator Allen, of Nebraska, in 1893, who spoke for 14 consecutive hours, and succeeded in defeating the bill proposing to repeal the silver-purchase law.

It was a weary senate, generally, that sat scowling through the night as Senator La Follette proceeded cheerfully and untiringly in his efforts to kill the currency bill in its present form, or prolong the session of Congress indefinitely.

Throughout the night and early morning hours the galleries were well occupied. Miss Lola La Follette, daughter of the senator, watched the proceedings from the member's gallery all through the night, and there were five other ladies who remained until the conclusion of the senator's speech.

On the floor, senators settled back in their chairs vainly seeking comfort.

Dawn brought a cooler atmosphere to the heated chamber. How Mr. LaFollette managed to endured the enervating heat while under the strain of such an ordeal is a mystery. Other senators appeared absolutely exhausted.

The rule adopted at 1 o'clock denying to Mr. LaFollette the right of demanding repeated roll calls, forced him to speak without rest from that time on. In all he had succeeded in having thirty-six roll calls when a musty rule not previously invoked in a generation was sprung by Mr. Aldrich, proving that a quorum could not again be questioned, until intervening business had elapsed.

The Wisconsin senator apparently took the keenest delight in the discomfort he was inflicting upon his fellow statesmen.

As soon as Mr. LaFollette concluded his speech, Senator Aldrich demanded a vote on the adoption of the conference report on the currency bill. His motion was not put, however, and Senator Stone, gained recognition.

The Missouris senator held the center of the stage impressively. "I have been asked whether I shall continue the lead of the senator from Wisconsin," he began slowly, "I am more than with him."

He then proceeded half humorously to chide the senators for inattention to currency legislation, commenting scathingly on the present deserted appearance of the chamber.

Mr. Burkett declared that the Senate had earnestly spent weeks in consideration of the subject, insinuating that the absence of the Missourian might be responsible for his lack of information.

Mr. Stone was frequently interrupted by senators declaring their inability to hear him. He is one of the most deliberate, and provokingly slow members of the body, with a voice unusually difficult to understand.

Laughter greeted some of his sallies—especially once, when he gazed regretfully at the vacant democratic side and remarked:

"I have come to a part in my address in which I wished to speak particularly to my democratic colleagues. However, they do not appear to be present."

After outlining his opposition to the amalgamated Vreeland-Aldrich bill and denouncing it as imperfect and likely to result harmfully, if enacted, he began the reading of newspaper editorials, pamphlets, and various other data on the currency question, amid frequent interruptions by Mr. Aldrich.

Soon after Mr. Stone rose, Mr. Gore demanded a roll call to determine whether a quorum were present. He was ruled out of order in accordance with the rule adopted in the night and his appeal from the ruling was also denied.

Shortly after Mr. Stone began his speech, Mr. Aldrich interrupted to inquire whether or not it was true that Mr. Stone had come back to Washington "in the interests of a certain presidential candidate," referring to Mr. Bryan.

The Missouri senator denied that he had been commissioned by Bryan.

Towards eleven o'clock Mr. Stone took up a set of consular reports regarding the financial systems of foreign countries and was particularly interested in laying before the Senate the situation in India. Aldrich asked him whether he would not just as soon have the report printed as a Senate document. Mr. Stone replied that that was just what he was doing—having it printed in the Record.

"But what connection has it with this bill?" asked Mr. Aldrich.

"There may be no connection," replied Mr. Stone, "but it may be of interest to the Filipinos to know what another Asiatic country has done in the way of regulating its finances when they come to regulate theirs."

At 12:30 Mr. Stone was still speaking. The plan of senate leaders is to prevent Mr. La Follette's again taking the floor. Should he attempt to do so, rule 19 will be sprung on him. This declares that no senator may speak more than twice on the same subject on the same legislative day. During yesterday, Mr. La Follette at one time yielded the floor for the introduction of some bills and reports. Therefore, according to the leaders, he has already spoken twice on the same subject on the same legislative day.

Mr. Stone concluded his speech at 2:45 o'clock and Mr. Gore immediately took the floor in continuation of the filibuster.

Fighting in Samos.

Smyrna, May 30.—The fighting in and around Vathy, the capital of the Island of Samos, between the besieged Prince of Samos, governor of the island, and warring islanders, has been so far in favor of the insurgents. The Porte is said to be arranging to awe Samos with a naval display.

The rebellion leaders, at the head of several hundred men, have gone so far that they can no longer be held back by the threatened invasion of troops. Their offense has been so grave that their execution will be demanded whenever hostilities are ended. This has been responsible for the fierce fighting of the last few days, in which a number of attacks have been made upon the prince's residence. Several hundred people have been killed.

Troops are expected to reach the island today, when the small garrison defending the prince will be relieved. The islanders, however, are prepared for a strong resistance, and a bombardment by warships will likely be necessary to restore order.

Jury Failed to Agree.

Jersey City, N. J., May 30.—The jury in the trial of Theodore F. Whitmore, on trial for murder in the first degree for the killing of his wife Lena, reported to the court at shortly before 12 o'clock that it had failed to reach an agreement and was "hopelessly divided." Judge Swayze, who is presiding, asked them why they could not agree, and the foreman declared they could not reconcile certain points. He then asked that the judge again read his charge to them.

"I cannot do so," declared Judge Swayze. "The jury will retire at once and will come to an agreement as soon as possible." Whitmore was in court in a state of almost collapse. Ever since the jury last night asked for information as to the various degrees of murder he has been in a highly nervous state, and today it was plain his only hope was a verdict of a lesser degree that will save him from the chair. Later the jury was discharged, there being no indications of an agreement.

Killed by a Woman.

New York, May 30.—Discovering John Marrio in the act of attempting to maltreat her six-year-old daughter Emilia, Mrs. Theresa Phillipo, today, shot and killed the man in a vacant lot back of her home in east New York. The mother had suspected Marrio's design and followed him, and when she found her fears justified she fired three shots, two of which struck Marrio in the breast, killing him instantly, she has been arrested. It was on her return from court, where her elder daughter, Maria, aged 14 had lodged a complaint of assault against another Italian that Mrs. Philippio discovered Marrio's attempt to ruin her younger child. The woman, weeping and hysterical from her experience earlier in the day, rushed out of the house and followed Marrio. The shooting followed.

Rebellion in Korea.

Seoul, Korea, May 30.—If Japan hopes to crush out the Korean rebellion with anything like dispatch, she will have to send several times the number of troops that are now in the field. While the detached companies of soldiers have been able to repulse the Koreans and inflict great loss of life, the rebellion seems in no measure to have weakened. The persistence with which the Koreans have held out has greatly enraged the people of Japan, and the mikado is now being urged to take extreme measures to put an end to the outbreaks. The press is urging that stronger repressive measures be adopted without delay, so that the working out of the plan to Japanize Korea can be more quickly accomplished.

Won $8,000 Prize.

Rome, May 30.—De Lagrange won the $8,000 prize offered in the aeroplane contests here this morning. In the same machine in which he made a trial flight before King Victor Emmanuel early in the week he covered 12,750 meters, or nearly eight miles, in 15 minutes and 26 seconds. The De Lagrange aeroplane made nine circuits of the Piazza Dormi in its prize winning flight. This is the best aeroplane flight that has been officially recorded.

Attacked by Japanese.

Vancouver, B. C., May 30.—Eighty infuriated Japanese nearly killed Thomas Hughes, conductor on a Canadian Pacific freight train, and put the other members of the crew to flight when the freight train accidentally derailed a car in which the Japanese workmen were riding. The Japanese then made their escape. Warrants have been sworn out for the ring-leaders.

City Council.

There was a brief meeting of the City Council last night. The appropriation and license bills, which had been passed by the Board of Aldermen, were adopted by the Common Council, as was also an ordinance permitting the Southern Railway Company to place a spur track into the premises of T. F. Burroughs, Son & Co., at the northeast corner of Wilkes and Alfred streets.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

All the members of the Board of Aldermen were present.

The report of the committee on streets recommending an appropriation of $1,100 for a continuation of the sewer at Wilkes and Washington streets south on the latter street to a point 50 feet south of Gibbon, laid over at the last meeting, was adopted.

The ordinance granting permission to the Southern Railway Company to place a switch into T. F. Burroughs, Son & Co's premises, was received from the Common Council and their action concurred in.

There was no discussion on either of these measures.

COMMON COUNCIL.

An adjourned meeting of the Common Council was held last night with 12 members present.

The Chair announced that the meeting was for a specific purpose and any other business would require unanimous consent.

The first business was the license law and it was passed unanimously. It remains the same as last year.

The next business was the appropriation bill and Mr. Leadbeater called attention to the fact that only $5,000 had been named in this ordinance for streets and sewers, that in accordance with a clause in the ordinance the auditor would refuse to issue warrants in excess of that sum for street work. He said he did not like this feature of the bill.

The Chair stated that when the appropriation for street improvements or any other appropriation was exhausted it was incumbent upon the auditor to so notify Council, and that when the occasion arose for more money for this work he hardly thought there would be any trouble. This was satisfactory to Mr. Leadbeater.

The appropriation bill, which carries the amount of $132,200, was then passed unanimously.

Under a question of personal privileges Mr. Marshall read a communication from the Alexandria Gazette, headed "Communicated, Blacksmith Shop." He said the statement from some one signed "Citizen" in this article was absolutely true, as the remarks credited to him through said paper, were made by him as chairman of the committee on public property. When the sale of the old Hydraulson engine house was advertised he took pride in looking up a purchaser and one who would convert the building into the most desirable plant, taking into consideration the wishes of the residents and also the improvement of the street. No one was more surprised than he when it was published that the old building had been rented as a blacksmith shop. He said he was approached by a prominent official of the city, one whose word would be taken by any one, who stated that there was a gentleman who desired to purchase this property and that he had asked him if the conversion of the building into a refrigerating plant, which would cost about $3,000, something needed badly in Alexandria, would have any weight with the committee in the consideration of the bids. He said he told him that as a tax payer and a councilman it would bear great weight with him. Mr. Marshall told the gentleman that as chairman of the committee he had several offers to rent the property for different purposes—one a blacksmith shop—which he refused to consider. He said it was on the faith of the statement by this official and other assurances from worthy citizens that he made the statement in Council that called forth the article in the Gazette. He said he had heard on the street that it was the intention of the purchaser, however, to carry out the first-named plan at some later date. He said the property brought all it was worth, and it was not for Council to dictate what use it was put to. He said he made these remarks to justify his position as a representative of the whole people in the lower branch of Council.

After Mr. Marshall had finished speaking, the Chair said that it was a case of misplaced confidence, for which Mr. Marshall could not be held responsible, and that if he had known the building was to be used as a blacksmith shop he would certainly not have voted for its sale.

Others voiced the sentiments of the Chair and of Mr. Marshall.

The committees on streets and general laws brought in a report in the shape of an ordinance allowing spur tracks to be run into the premises of T. F. Burroughs, Son & Co., which was adopted unanimously.

A petition to allow Miss Ella A. Standiford to make necessary repairs to a small entry way connecting a kitchen with the main building at 1010 King street was granted.

No other business the board adjourned

DECORATION DAY.

Meteorological conditions at the close of yesterday were ominous, and there was every reason to suppose that rainy weather was scheduled for today, Decoration Day. The temperature, which had been sultry during the day, fell perceptibly and the change in the weather was much enjoyed. This morning a refreshing breeze from the northeast was prevailing, accompanied by fair weather but there were showers about noon and in the afternoon.

Today has been observed by many as a holiday. The banks and government offices were closed, and a large percentage of the people of this city went on public or private excursions, or made trips to nearby cities. The steamers running to river resorts have been crowded, and many gasoline yachts and launches were on the river.

The electric trains have transported large numbers of people to and from Mount Vernon during the day.

Services appropriate to Decoration Day were held in the National Cemetery between 5 and 6 o'clock this evening

CIDER AND VINEGAR PLANT.

The Chamber of Commerce is authorized to announce that the Semmes-Board Co., manufacturers of cider and vinegar, will locate their plant in our city, and begin operation about July 1st. They will occupy the large building owned by the Norfolk & Washington Steamboat Co. at the corner of Prince and Union streets. Mr C. W. Semmes, a very prominent business man of Washington, is president of this firm and Mr. B. F. Board, who will be general manager, is considered one of the most experienced and successful men in that line that can be found anywhere. This plant will contain a large mill and one hundred generators with an out-put of two hundred barrels every ten hours. They will employ from fifteen to twenty men, to begin with, in the plant and have sixteen salesmen on the road, covering the entire central, southern and western portion of the United States. The city is to be congratulated on this important addition to its business ranks.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

At a recent meeting of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce the following were admitted to membership in that organization: Mr Laurence Stabler, Messrs. George H. Robinson's Sons, the Alexandria Water Company. The gentlemen connected with this organization feel much gratified over the locating of the Semmes-Board Company's plant at Alexandria, an account of which will be found in our columns today, as they have the assurance of this firm that it was through the continued efforts of this organization that they selected this city as a location for their plant and with the same assurance from the Bliss Silk Throwing Company, which is now employing a large number of girls and boys, they feel that the results during the last few months have been quite encouraging for this branch of their work.

Certain pool rooms in which soda water fountains have been installed and the many fruit stores where ice cream and soda water are dispensed and where the Sunday laws are being violated were the especial objects of the conference. Orders will be issued to the chief of police to notify the proprietors of such places that the authorities are not disposed to allow the Sunday laws to be honored in their breach in the future.

Why swelter over a glowing range in a stuffy kitchen, when a new Perfection Wick Blue Flame Oil Cook-Stove will do the family cooking without raising the temperature enough to be noticeable?

STATEMENT OF ANTHRACITE OPERATORS.

A report having gained currency that an increase in the price of coal is contemplated unless the miners accept a reduction in wages after April 1, 1909, the following statement is made on behalf of the anthracite operators:

"As the existing agreement with the miners remains in force until April 1, 1909, no consideration has been given to the terms or conditions of a new one; nor has an advance in the price of coal been contemplated notwithstanding that the cost of mining has greatly increased since 1903, when the present wage arrangement went into effect. This increase is due to a number of causes, among them being the exhaustion of the more accessible and richer veins; the increased cost of materials, notably timber; the installation of electric haulage; and, as mining gets deeper and more difficult, the provision of more expensive safety devices.

"Also her report has been persistently circulated to the effect that plans are under way looking to the distribution of coal direct to retail consumers. This rumor is without foundation in truth, as the mining interests have no desire to extend the field of their activity beyond the mining and manufacture of coal and its delivery in the wholesale markets where it may be needed."

Mr. Miller's Denial

Paris, May 29.—J. Martin Miller, former Consul at Rheims, made emphatic denial today of the statement of Miss Mae C. Wood in her recent suit against Senator Thomas C. Platt that she had received from him a communication signed "Gatineau" which involved Wm. Loeb, Secretary to President Roosevelt, and Robert J. Wynne, Consul-General at London. "Her story is a malicious fabrication," Miller declared.
